Article IX

AWARDS

Section 1. EIWL Annual Awards

a. IWL Published Poet of the Year and Published Writer of the Year. The awards may be presented in any given year to a worthy nominee or nominees, but do not need to be awarded every year.

(i) Any chapter or member may nominate one current EIWL member per year for these awards. Authors may be re-nominated if not selected. Previous Published Poet of the Year or Published Writer of the Year winners may be re-nominated.

(ii) Two copies of all nominations must be mailed to the League President and may be approved by a minimum of 2 EIWL Board members. A third member will be asked to assist in the event of a tie when multiple nominations are received. Postmark deadline will be determined by the EIWL Board and posted in newsletter for any nominations.

(iii) Criteria for nomination:

(a) Publication of written work during the previous year.

(b) Nominee must be an EIWL member during the year of nomination.

(iv) Nominations must include:

(a) A completed Nomination form.

(b) A letter of introduction about the nominee.

(c) A resume of the writer's work published in the previous year (e.g., work published in 2022 for the 2023 award).

(d) Original copies or photocopies of work(s) published in magazines, journals, newspapers, etc., including the masthead of the publication showing the date of publication. Entire published books should be sent; these will be returned.
